DISPENSING JUSTICE.

"The judgment of the Court in your case is that you be confined in the Albany Penitentiary at hard labor for three years," said Judge Montgomery to James Cross, colored boy, this morning. James isn't very old, but he didn't lose any time and has a jail record against him. The charge against him this time is housebreaking. Frederick Lomax, aged 20, badn't been out of the penitentiary three weeks when he was caught in the housebreaking enterprise with Cross. In recognition of his superior accomplishments and experience the Court gave him two years more than what Crossor gave him two years more than what Cross got.

John H. Semmes, a young mulatto, finds marriage a large, dismal failure. He married two colored women in rather rapid succession and the result is that he will live for five years at Albany with no domestic pleasures whatever. He said that it was a put up job on him and that he could prove it if he had another chance.

Edward Golway was sentenced for three years for robbing William Armstead.

Evert Gilbert will spend two years at Albany. He has been in the workhouse three times and in jail three times. His passion for housebreaking proved his downfall. His mother pleaded for him to the Judge, and the Court said that it was always the case that the crimes of the guilty brought suffering to the immeent. He could not help thinking that the mother would be quite as well off without him.

What the Thieves Want.

A. C. Burch, 611 M street northwest, re ports the loss of a black overcoat. -- John Smith, 327 C street northwest, reports his stable was forced open and a set of single harness stolen.—Charles Bechtel reports stolen from his room, by his room-mate, a pair of pantaloons, gold scarf-pin and sleeve buttons.—S. J. Brown reports that his pocket was picked of an envelope contain-ing 892 in money, yesterday afternoon on the Avenue.

Too Lively for Church. Horse-racing and church-going may not e incompatible, but when an attempt is made to mix up the two enterprises a war generally ensues. Sunday night, at the Montello M. E. Church, Philip Boone and Isaac Johnson, both colored, two attendants at the track, tried to imbibe a little religion, but had probably imbibed too much of something else before going to church, for, instead of capturing any religion, one got a black eye and the other $10 or thirty days before Judge Miller in the Police Court this morning.

He Will Live at the Farm "Whar does I live at?" echoed old uncle Richard Walker. "Wy, in a house, of cose," replied the aged colored gentleman when hauled up for vagrancy. Brother Walker has dipped deeply into the mysteries of religiou, and like many better educated people has failed to understand them. Consequently he has developed into a first-class religious "crank." In the Police Court this morning Judge Miller sent "Brer" Walker down for sixty days.

Charitable Young Women. The board of trustees of the Young Women's Christian Home held a reception at the Metropolitan M. E. Church last night. An enjoyable programme of recita-tions and musical selections was eleverly rendered.

The Case of Edward Stolpe. WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 16, 1889. TO THE EDITOR CRITIC: In Tuesday's saue of your paper you gave an account of ny arrest on the charge of buying stolen goods and keeping a "feuce." Inasmuch as this article did not present a complete statethis article did not present a complete statement of the facts, and the false impression thereby created has injured my business, I ask you to publish this brief statement:

I have been engaged at my trade as gold and silver plater for the past twenty-five years on the most prominent thoroughfare in this city and in the course of my business I purchase old gold and silver. I do not keep a second-hand store, nor do I keep a "fence," but earn my living by hard work from early morning until late at night.

On Saturday following the robbery of Mrs. Donnovan's house, in Georgetown, I purchased from a man, who gave a plausible account as to how he obtained possession of the same, a number of pieces of broken jewelry and a card case, and paid the full value for them. I was subsequently arrested.

In the Police Court these facts were made plain and the charges against me wholly diemissed. It has always been, and still is, my ambition to be an honest and law-abiding citizen. I was simply duped, as any man might be, by the plausible story of a skillful rascal. EDW. STOLPE.

Advice to Mothers. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and it is the best remedy for diarrhea. 25c. a bottle.

A Verdict of $3,000 Rendered. The jury in Judge Montgomery's court yesterday rendered a verdict of $3,000 for Section rendered a vertice of $5,000 for Edward Bunyea in his suit for damages against the Metropolitan Railroad Company. Compensation was claimed for the death of his 7-year-old daughter, Rebecca, who was run over on November 14, 1885. Her leg was amputated, and death resulted from lockjaw.

Catarrh Cured. A clergyman, after years of suffering from that loathsome disease, Catarrh, and rom that foathsome thesese, Catarra, and valuity trying every known remedy, at last found a recipe which completely cured and saved him from death. Any sufferer from this dreadful disease sending a self-addressed atamped envelope to Professor J. A. Lawrence, 88 Warren street, New York City, will receive the recipe free of charge.

The fifth lecture in the course now being given at the Young Men's Christian Association Hall will be delivered to-night by Dr. J. A. Woodburn of Johns Hopkins University. He will talk about "Government by the People."

Twenty-five cents is not a fortune, yet it buys a bottle of Dr. Buil's Cough Syrup.

Frosted feet can be permanently cured by Salvation Oil. Price 25 cents a bottle. SEE our $9.90 suits. Elseman's, 7th & E.

.C.CORSETS

The very fact that we have The very fact that we have sold the I. C. Corsets for the past seven years, with a steadily increasing sale for it, is convincing evidence that it must have true merit. Were it not fully up to what we have led you to expect of it the sales would have quickly shown your disapproval. It embodies certain features peculiarly its own; it produces a graceful and symmetrical shape to the form without necessitating tight lacing; it fits snugiy and gives the waist a slender appearance, par-ticularly pleasing and desirticularly pleasing and desirable.

We have sold thousands upon thousands of them, and there is no diminution in the sale. Many ladies wear no other brand, and haven't for years. We have them in Coutii, Sateen and Lasting, in short, medium and long waists, and are prepared to fit any form as near perfection as possible. If you have never worn them, try a pair, and you will find that the size of your waist will be seemingly reduced, the outline improved, a permanent support afforded, a comfortable feeling and graceful shape obtained. Prices, $1.00, $2.75, $2.75, $3.50 and $4.87 per pair.

APRONS.—Our stock of Aprons is so extensive it now constitutes a department in itself. Ladies are beginning to realize that it doesn't pay to make their aprons. Making by thousands has lowered prices about one-fourth. We have fair grade Lawn Aprons at 19/c; better at 17, 19, 25 and 56c, each. Embroidered French Lawn Aprons at 50, 624, 75 and 871c.
